Sample of Learning Outcomes Matrix Provided to Programs

Program	31-409-2
	Type	Title
	Core									Gen Ed
Cabinetmaking and Millwork Program Outcomes & Core Abilities Assessment Types: F--Formative S--Summative J--Joint summative assessment of a Core Ability and Program Outcome in a core course	409-330 Woodworking 1: Machinery and Methods	409-331 Woodworking 2: Materials and Processes	409-332 Cabinetmaking, Millwork & Furniture 1	409-333 Cabinetmaking, Millwork & Furniture 2	410-340 Tool and Machine Maintenance	409-341 Wood Finishing	409-342 Coutertops and Surfaces	409-385 Drawing And Estimating	409-386 AutoCAD for Cabinet Drawing	801-356 Communications 1	804-379 Vocational Math 1	806-363 Science 1
1. Follow standard safety procedures while operating and maintaining tools and machinery.													Fill in Target Level of Accomplishment for Core Ability Summative Assessment : B- Beginning D- Developing A- Accomplished E- Exemplary
2. Produce high-quality products using appropriate tools and equipment, maintaining tolerances and standards while using time, motion, and materials efficiently.
3. Visualize, design, plan and complete projects that meet clients' expectations.
4. Interpret technical drawings and specifications necessary to create, modify, and assemble products.
5. Communicate clearly and effectively with clients and co-workers.
6. Contribute to a dynamic and energetic workplace by following instructions, accepting responsibility, and working both collaboratively and independently, as required.
7. Engage in lifelong learning in order to advance technical, personal, and professional skills.													↓
Communication
Critical Thinking
Ethics
Global and Cultural Perspectives
Mathematics
Science and Technology
Self-Management
Social Interaction													