

MADISON COLLEGE

Interest Letter

The Madison College Scholars of Promise program helps income-eligible recent high school graduates realize their dream of attending college by removing financial barriers. As part of this program, Madison College will:

- Pay your tuition and fees (after federal and state financial aid have been applied) for up to 6 consecutive semesters
- Guide you through the admissions, financial aid, and class enrollment processes
- Provide advising support throughout your Madison College career
- Offer opportunities for career guidance and readiness, financial literacy, academic support, transfer information and more

Madison College Scholars of Promise students are asked to:

- Attend a How-to-Apply session at your high school to assist with the Admissions and Financial Aid processes.
- Attend a senior year orientation for Scholars of Promise students held at your high school.
- Participate in a Family Orientation hosted by Madison College.

We strongly encourage you to create a Madison College student account at the myMadisonCollege website once you submit this letter.
