

Terry S Webb Shared Governance Leadership Award

This award is named in honor of Provost Emeritus Terry S. Webb, whose leadership was instrumental in establishing a culture committed to shared governance principles at Madison College. It has been established to recognize dedicated Madison College students and staff who consistently model those principles, and who have invested their time and energy in the Shared Governance system. The goal of shared governance is to be inclusive, innovative, and transparent, and its foundations are in equity, collaboration, accountability and ownership. Shared Governance promotes shared responsibility for college wide policies, strategies and priorities.

Eligibility:

- Must be currently serving on a Shared Governance body, or have served in the immediate past term
- Award is open to any student or employee that meets the first eligibility criteria

In the nomination form, please state why your nominee deserves this award. Please type your response in the space provided on the nomination form. Include examples of the following:

- Assembly / Council position(s) held and dates of involvement.
- How does the nominee demonstrate excellence in the principles of shared governance? Please provide THREE specific examples.
- Please summarize your nominee's contributions.

Please limit your nomination to 500 words or less – even if you could write a book about them!